USER STORIES FOR SPRINT 3:

(a) A teacher must be able to upload course materials so that enrolled students can view and download them.
(b) A teacher must be able to upload a course photo if they want it changed.
(c) A user must be able to upload a profile picture of their choice when they choose to.
(d) A teacher must be able to send announcements so that students enrolled in that course can get updates on the course.
(e) A student must be able to view and download course material when necessary.

(f) A student must be able to view announcements in the course that they enrolled in so that they can get updates on the course.

(g) User must be able to view other users participating in the course in case they want to interact.

USER ACCEPTANCE TESTS:

(a) Given that I am a teacher, when I select the option to upload course material, then I should be able to select the files from my device and they should appear on the course homepage. also to enrolled students .

(b) Given that I am a teacher, when I navigate to the course homepage I should see an option to change the course photo then I should be able to upload a new photo from my device and it should be updated.

(c) Given that I am a user, when I click on my current profile picture , then I should be able to select an image from my device and it should be displayed and updated as my profile picture.

(d) Given that I am a teacher, when I navigate to the announcements page for a specific course, I should see a text box to enter my announcement, then it should be displayed on announcements page and accessible to enrolled students.

(e) Given that I am a student, when I navigate to the course page, I should see a section for course materials then I should be able to download them.

(f) Given that I am a student, when I access the course page, I should see an announcements section, then I should be able to view the full content of each announcement.

(g) Given that I am a user, when I access the course page and navigate to the participants page, then I should see a section displaying the list of participants and the names of all users who are enrolled in the course to view their profile or initiate communication if applicable.